DEADLOCK CONTINUES WITH 27TH BALLOT TA

·WOMAN BURGLAR FLUSHED ON JOB ESCAPES POLICE

One woman in Memphis, at least, is not waiting for the state to act upon the federal suffrage amendment, for she has already invaded what has been heretofore held inalienable man's field—burglary! The first feminine burglar was flushed early Monday while engaged in busily ply-

Acting Night Captain Hough was rudely shocked, to say the least, at 4:30 a.m. Monday when a telephone complaint came to police station asking that officers be dispatched at once to 502 Alabama street. A woman burglar was in the home of Mrs. Lula Tanner, widow.

The woman was seen disappearing through a window Mrs. Tanner told the police. Mrs. Tanner did not say whether the visitor was white or black. Several articles were reported wissing. The representations

Police investigated but found no clews.

Ex-Service Men and Former Legislators Qualify for August Primary.

That the legislative ticket which qualified late Saturday will be indered by the Citizens' league at its meeting Monday night is practically assured. The tener of comments Monday was one of approval insofar as the personnel of the ticket is concerned and conversations with men from the county as well as the city indicated that the men composing the ticket were generally acceptable.

The Citizens' league officers made it very plain that the ticket as announced was not brought out by that body but the very fact that the names of the candidates will be submitted to a general meeting of the league indicates that while the league may not father the ticket as a body that it will be given its indorsement.

The candidates who qualified for the August primary are: August primary are:

Killing Of Negro

Painter Mystery

Mystery still surrounds the murder of Robert Liggens, negro painter of Buntyn, whose body was discovered by small white boys last Friday afternoon, with the skull, literally batered to a pulp. Liggens, who was known as a "good nearo," usually carried from $50 to $100 cash on his person. When found his pockets were turned inside out.

Squire J. H. Helms, who lives at Buntya, held an inquest Saturday over the body. The jury returned a verdict that the "deceased had met his death at the hands of a party or parties unknown, this being murder." Liggens' body was sent to Mississippi for burial Sunday.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., July 5.—In the little village of Vivion, France, on Jan. 1, 1919, the surviving members of Goldsboro company E of the 119th infantry of the famous 39th division, unanimously voted to ereet a memorial in Goldsboro to the memory of their 27 comrades, largely Tennesseans, who paid the supreme sacrifice in the war, and late today this decision was carried to a successful conclusion when the monument was unveiled at the Wayne county courthouse.

Showers Forecast From Washington

The fact that the Memphis weather office was closed Monday on account of the holiday will not stop Jupe Pluvius from tilting his rain barrels nor "Thor" from swinging his thunder hammer, if the forecast issued from Washington holds good: Probable thunderstorms are forecasted for West Tennessee for Monday and Monday night, which may mar scores of pienies, outings and fishing parties planned for the occasion.

The river Monday morning registered 19.7 feet on the gauge, a fail of only 1 of a foot in the last 48 hours. The

LEADERS HOLDING

AUDITORIUM, SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 5 .- With five ballots taken today in rapid order, making a total of 27 ballots taken since the convention began voting for presidential nominee, the deadlock which has been adamant was virtually unchanged here this afternoon and while talk became more prominent of "dark horses" there was little actual prospect of any immediate landslide to any man.

On the twenty-fifth ballot the leaders stood:

McAdoo, 3641/2; Cox, 424; Palmer, 169. McAdoo's vote remained unchanged since the twenty-second ballot. Cox lost five and Palmer lost 9.

On the twenty-sixth ballot the eladers stood: McAdoo, 371; Cox, 4241/2; Palmer, 167; Davis, 551/2. On the twenty-seventh ballot the leaders stood: McAdoo, 3711/2; Cox, 4231/2; Palmer ,1661/2; Davis, 601/2.

McAdoo, 371½; Cox, 423½; Palmer ,166½; Davis, 60½.

The first votes for Oscar W. Underwood cast in the convention came from Alabama on the twenty-fifth ballot. Gen, Pershing got one vote from Missouri on that ballot.

W. J. Bryan made this statement:

"T think what they are really looking for is someone who will be satisfactory to the three elements represented in the deadlock, some one who will respond without protest to every demand that comes from the White House, from Wall street and from the liquor interests.

"These are the largest interests represented in the convention and they are not yet been able to agree on a man."

The tweaty-third ballot, first of the day, showed no material change in the deadlock.

The leaders stood:

McAdoo, 361½, Cox, 425; Palmer, 181½; Davis, 50½

The changes showed that Cox lost 5, Palmer gained 15, McAdoo lost 8.

As the favorite son votes stood put some of the delegates added a touch of humor. Missouri threw a haif vote of Indiana.
